Anaheim Small Business Organization (ASBO) and the Anaheim Lion’s Club have partnered up in hosting its 2nd Annual Hoagy Holquin Memorial Putt-Putt Challenge on Saturday, September 10, 2016 at Camelot Golfland, followed by lunch at the Embassy Suites Anaheim.

From 8:00-11:00am ASBO members, Lion’s Club members, businesses and locals throughout the community are invited to “golf” in a friendly tournament-style challenge at Camelot Golfand located at 3200 E. Carpenter Ave., Anaheim, CA 92804. $50 per person to join or $180 for a foursome. A nice lunch, silent auction, raffles, awards and networking will follow at Embassy Suites located at 2100 E. Frontera, Anaheim, CA 92806.

Hoagy Holquin, one of the founders of ASBO, was a businessman and gentle soul who helped thousands of people whenever he could, with his untiring community involvement. Unfortunately, he lost a hard fought battle to cancer last year. ASBO has named the Putt-Putt Challenge in his memory.

“The putt-putt challenge was a lot of fun last year,” founding member Brian Chuchua said, “Not everyone golfs but this event allows for all levels to join in.”

Everyone is welcome to join. Please contact Larry Woodard at lpwsr41@gmail.com to sign up. This is a fundraiser and all proceeds will go to ASBO and the Lion’s Club.
